

K.F. JOHNSON

FULL BIO

“The Empress of romantic, murder, suspense”, K.F. Johnson is a Queens, New York native residing in Atlanta, Georgia. As a child, habitually failing to make curfew earned her numerous occasions on restriction where reading & writing became her main form of escape. Later, K.F continued to develop her talent while obtaining a B.A. in Psychology at Spelman College & acquiring an MBA. In 2012, she published her 1st book for her social media friends & family to see. To her delight, it went viral, repeatedly reaching #1 on Amazon's top 100 for its genre. Since then, K.F. has published multiple books, started One Ironwoman Publishing, been featured in magazines & nominated for numerous awards, both for her books & as an author. With her fan base cheering for more, this mother & wife has blossomed into a witty & cunning author, penning spicy, realistic & deadly tales to remember.

WHEN I'M BAD, I'M BETTER

Deadly, sexy and suspenseful personified! Blood is thicker than water but loyalty is rarer than greed. You shouldn't judge a book by its cover, but when the sins of these 4 cousin's past threaten to destroy the facades they've worked so hard to maintain, some of them will do anything to prevent their covers being blown. They say good girls finish last...but when they're bad, they're better!

WHAT I'D DO FOR LOVE

A woman scorned is a dangerous woman. Greer Patterson always felt like an outsider. Loathed by her step mother and half siblings for being the green eyed, fair skinned product of her black father's affair with a white woman; she's never truly felt loved by anyone except her father and husband Michael.

When Greer's life as she knows it comes crashing down after discovering her husband's torrid affair, she decides to take matters into her own bloody hands. Soon, after sending Michael to his untimely death and framing his mistress, she begins feeling something she's never felt before...powerful. Now, with a newfound confidence and the freedom, if she can stay out of jail, she's determined to stop anything and anyone from standing in the way of true love again!
